

Jerald C. Kemmet,
Director
Bureau of Criminal Investigation
North Dakota Office of Attorney General

Jerald C. Kemmet is the Director of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, a division within the North Dakota Office of Attorney General. Kemmet is responsible for the overall operation of the Bureau as well as maintaining coordination between officials from local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies.

Kemmet also serves on several law enforcement committees and boards throughout the state and nation including the North Dakota Peace Officers Legislative Committee, and he is chairman of the Midwest High Intensity Drug Trafficking Executive Board. He has 32 years of law enforcement experience, including 30 years with the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, and has extensive experience in the field of narcotics investigations and management. Jerry is a graduate of the FBI National Academy, the DEA National Academy, and Minot State University.